

COMPETITION NOTICE OF NUOVI MONDI FILM FESTIVAL 2023

Nuovi Mondi Film Festival is the SMALLEST FILM FESTIVAL IN THE WORLD.

It takes place in a very small village in the Southern Italian alps: Valloriate (Cuneo). Only 80 persons lives here.

Our challenge is to create an important cultural event with international guests, great films, meetings, art exhibitions that convince people to come up here, in the mountains, and serve as a development engine for these beautiful but abandoned "high lands".

Only by giving life back to abandoned places it is possible to think of a new ability to design, to imagine and to explore new identities, NEW WORLDS

RULES, TERMS AND CONDITIONS TO SUBSCRIBE THE FILM TO THE FESTIVAL

The Kosmoki Cultural Association and the Municipality of Valloriate organize the NUOVI MONDI FILM FESTIVAL 12th edition, competition for documentaries made after 2019. Festival is an open competition for creative documentaries and authors who represents the mountain as its main protagonist, both from the point of view of sports, adventure, culture and any other theme related to the mountain.

However will also be taken into account films that cover different themes from the mountain but which adhere to the philosophy that the Nuovi Mondi festival proposes and develops.

Works that bring the spectator to the knowledge of places, stories and marginal and hidden realities to give new perspectives and explore new or hidden forms of existence: in two words, new worlds.
